THREE ESCAPE SUNDAY FROM CITY JAIL

Dies After Fire In Motel Room

Norman Love, 42, of Lexington, Kentucky died here yesterday morning following a fire in his motel room at the Murray Plaza Motel. A coroner's inquest held at 1:15 yesterday ruled that Love died "of suffocation from smoke".

Mrs. William Graham, who manages the motel with her husband, told the Ledger and Times this morning that Mr. Love was here in Murray in the interest of a tobacco firm and was being briefed on the local market by a colleague Edward Bates who was to leave for another market area.

The two visited local markets and had rooms next to each other at the motel.

Mrs. Graham said that a doctor and his wife had the room on the other side of Mr. Love and that they heard him coughing early Sunday and thought that he just had a cold.

Mrs. Lewis went to her door about 6:30 a. m. however and looked out and saw smoke coming from beneath Mr. Love's room and immediately called for help.

The door was opened and by crawling along the floor through the dense smoke, Mr. Love was located near the bathroom and was dragged out into the open. He apparently had tried to get out and instead of going toward the door went toward the bathroom.

Firemen were called to put out the fire in the room, which had burst into flames when "fresh" air entered the room.

Efforts were made to revive Mr. Love and he was rushed to the hospital where he was placed under an oxygen tent. He seemed to be breathing well when he suddenly quit breathing and died.

Mr. Love was a large, man, six feet four inches tall, weighing 265 pounds, and was pulled from the room with great difficulty. The smoke in the room was dense, coming from a blazing mattress. Mr. Love was a heavy smoker.

Mrs. Graham said that the room at the motel was demolished by the flames and smoke. Each room of the motel is insulated and fire-proofed she said to prevent a large scale catastrophe. She said that she regretted the tragedy very much and that it was the first such incident at the motel.

Mr. Love was married and had four children. One child is only five or six weeks old.

The funeral will be held at Richmond, Virginia tomorrow.

The coroner's jury was composed of Gene Landolt, Cross Spann, Jimmy Cooper, Grogan Roberts, Aubrey Willoughby, and Jimmy Rickman. James Mason Churchill acted in the position of his father,

Rumor False; Griddler Is Reported OK

Granville Hicks is alive and well according to his mother Mrs. George Hicks of Nashville, Tennessee. The Ledger and Times called Mrs. Hicks after a persistent rumor went the rounds here Saturday night and Sunday that young Hicks died as a result of injuries received when he was allegedly attacked last Wednesday night by Jimmy and Eddie Hargrove and Jackie Boyd at the 641 Club just south of Hazel.

Hicks, a six foot two inch, 210 pound guard on the Murray State College football team, was injured in the attack, however he was treated at the Murray Hospital and released. He went home that night which gave rise to the rumor that he had been seriously injured in the fight.

Hicks said that he was at the club when one of the three came up to him and said something. When he was asked to repeat what he said, the one who started the attack kicked Hicks in the face. Hicks reported. He threw up his arm toward off the blow and the fight progressed from there.

The two Hargrove boys and Boyd are charged with firing a shotgun outside the club three times also. They are under a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

The warrant is signed by Harold Heath, manager of the club. The three refused to be extradited to face charges in Tennessee. They are also wanted here to face other charges against them.

Making the arrest at the 641 club were Deputy Sheriff Alvin Wall and Trooper Joe Dillard of Tennessee.

Hicks suffered leg cuts when he was thrown through a window by the trio.

Were Held For County Under Assault To Commit Murder

Three persons, charged with "assault with intent to commit murder" escaped early Sunday morning from the city jail. The three were being held at the city jail because of the overcrowded conditions at the county jail.

Chief of Police Burman Parker said that the escape was discovered at 12:45 on Sunday morning.

Making their break to freedom were Jimmy Hargrove, age 20, Eddy Hargrove age 18 and Jackie Boyd, age 22. They are charged with assault in connection with an altercation which took place last Wednesday night at the 641 Club just south of Hazel in which they allegedly attacked Granville Hicks, football player of Murray State College.

Chief of Police Parker said that the two Hargrove boys removed a steel brace from one of the bunks and prized open the cell door, then prized open the door of Boyd's cell, then prized open the door of the jail itself.

They left the jail, went into the fire hose drying room where they left the city hall, building through a window.

A hacksaw blade was used to cut the bolts of the brace which holds up the bunk.

The city jail faces the interior of the fire department which is located in the front of the building. The city jail may be visited at any time by anyone without the knowledge of the city police, since it is in the back of the building.

Chief Parker said that the trio had numerous callers during their stay in the city jail and one of them apparently slipped a hacksaw blade to them.

At the present time Jimmy and Eddy are under one assault and battery charge under $1,000 bond, and under another assault and battery charge under $500. Jimmy is under another assault charge under $100 bond. These charges are in addition to the present charge against the three of assault with intent to commit murder.

All bondsmen are cleared. It was reported this morning from the County Judge's office, since they cancelled their bonds after the trio was arrested on Wednesday night after the most recent escape.

They were to appear before the Probationary Grand Jury which will meet this week.

The county jail will probably be cleared this week after indictments are handed down by the Grand Jury. Normally the county has room for all of its prisoners, but since the jail is full now, the three were placed in the city lockup for safe keeping.

Ranger 6 Hits Moon, Eye Fails

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 100 persons had gathered at the Washington headquarters of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to follow the progress of Ranger-6's flight.

They were linked by direct wire with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, Calif., control center for the flight, where more than 200 persons were on hand for the historic occasion.

Ranger's launch from Cape Kennedy, Fla., had been nearly as perfect as anyone could wish. Since the launch at 10:49 a. m. (EST) Thursday everything had gone beautifully.

A mid-course correction maneuver, executed at 3:57 a. m. (EST) Friday had put the spacecraft in a near-perfect trajectory. No further course correction would be necessary.

Ranger-6 seemed certain to redeem five consecutive failures in the $152 million Ranger program and, with its six television cameras, get history's first close up picture of the moon.

Smooth Flight
In the final phase of Ranger's plunge to the moon, everything still was working perfectly. The tracking station at Goldstone, Calif., was locked onto the spacecraft and its radio signal was coming in strong and clear.

Ranger carried two independent video camera systems. They were supposed to go into a five-minute waitmap period 19 and 16 minutes before impact and, in the final 10 minutes and the last 900 miles of the mission, take 3,000 photographs of the moon's surface.

The back-up voice from Pasadena said indications were that the cameras went into the warmup phase all right. Goldstone would soon be receiving pictures.

But at impact minus 12 minutes 4:12 a. m. (EST) the voice reported: "no indication" that the cameras had gone from warmup to picture taking.

At 4:13 a. m. "as yet no video." At 4:19 a. m. "5 1/2 minutes before impact, 'still no video.' At impact minus 4 minutes, then 3 1/2, 2 1/2, 1, 'still no video.' At 30 seconds before impact, 'still no video.'"

No video
Impact time was only a few tenths of a second off the calculated moment. But—"still no video." By then, what happened seemed almost incredible. At the climax two separate camera banks, each with two separate turn-on systems, had failed simultaneously. There were four chances that at least one of the television systems would work. Neither did.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans Jr., associate administrator of the space agency, said it will take "a lot of detective work" to discover the cause of the television failure.

Since last-moment emergency "commands" from Goldstone produced no results, it might be that the fault lies in the master switch aboard the spacecraft through which ground controllers routed their radio orders.

"Three launches, all scheduled for 1964, are left in the Ranger Project to map potential landing places for the Apollo astronauts. Ranger-7 is set to go up in a month.

HAND BACK ON AND O.K.—Wilfred Chabotte, 42, rests in hospital in Hartford, Conn., while his sewed-back-on hand starts to heal. He was working in an ice house, fell into an ice cutting machine and his left hand was completely cut off. He put it in a paper bag and carried it to the hospital, where surgeons reattached it in a seven-hour operation. A doctor said it "appears circulation has been re-established."

Ambush-Wary Kentucky Wildcats Meet The Bulldogs Of Georgia In Rip-Snorting Tilt

By DAVID M. MOFFITT

United Press International
The ambush - wary Kentucky Wildcats ride into the badlands of Woodruff Hall at Athens, Ga. tonight to take on the surprising Georgia Bulldogs in what has suddenly developed into a probable rip-snorter.

A week ago, this game was considered one of the soft touches in Kentucky's try for a 21st South-eastern Conference title and a possible fifth national crown.

But during that week, the Bulldogs averaged 96 points per game while racing past South Carolina 112-90, Virginia Tech 96-87 and then Tennessee 79-67 and for the moment are considered as contenders for the SEC championship.

Kentucky, which squeezed past Florida 77-72 Saturday night to raise its over-all mark to 15-2, best

Jimmy Demaret Blows A $3,500 Putt

By JGE ST. AMANT

United Press International

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 2 — Jimmy Demaret blew an 18-inch putt on the first play-off hole and it cost him $3,500, but he could still smile today about his loss to young Tommy Jacobs for the Palm Springs golf classic title.

Demaret, who admits to 53 summers, and Jacobs, 29, were tied at the end of the regulation 90 holes in this marathon event Sunday and Jacobs picked up first prize money of $7,500, leaving Demaret with second money of $4,000.

Jacobs was in trouble on the first hole of the playoff when his second shot landed in behind a tree. Demaret was in the green in three on the 510-yard par-five hole and he lagged his first putt to within 18 inches of the pin. He took a long time addressing the ball and then missed, taking a bogey, as did Jacobs.

"That was just a bad putt," said Demaret afterwards. "I was pretty disgusted with myself."

Then he laughed and added, "Tommy's a good boy. I've got a lot of years left and he's about through. Actually, I just ran out of steam."

On the second extra hole, Demaret's tee shot hit one of the estimated 6,000 spectators swarming around the golfers while Jacobs got on the green and two-putted for a par-three. By then, Demaret was lying three on the green so it was in the SEC, has two important goals tonight. A victory for the 3rd-ranked Wildcats would be their 700th since Adolph Rupp became Kentucky basketball coach and it would give them sole possession of the SEC lead.

At present, Kentucky and Louisiana State, which beat Mississippi State 87-71 Friday and Mississippi State 87-71 Saturday, are co-leaders with 5-2 league marks. Georgia, Tennessee and Georgia Tech, which beat Alabama 93-81, are tied for third at 4-2. Fifth-ranked Vanderbilt, 14-2 over-all, is 3-2 after being upset by Auburn 81-63.

In other weekend action, unless Tulane extended its losing streak for the season to 16 games by bowing to Mississippi Friday 86-74 and to Mississippi State Saturday 81-77.

Tonight's schedule should bring about some shuffling in that logjam at the top of the league. In addition to Georgia - Kentucky, Georgia Tech is at Auburn, Tennessee at Florida and Vanderbilt at Alabama. Louisiana State will be idle.

The Georgia - Kentucky game figures to be a high-scoring affair. The Wildcats' Cotton Nash leads the SEC in scoring with his 26.6 average and teammate Ted Deeken is averaging 19.8. Jimmy Pitts, all over.

Jacobs also won $1,132 in the prize phase of the tournament, taking home a total of $9,632.

He and Demaret had 90-hole scores of 353 — seven under par. Jacobs had rounds of 66-74-74-69-70; Demaret, 75-68-67-72-71.

Don January, the slender Texan, and southpaw Bob Charles, reigning British Open king from New Zealand, finished in a tie for third at 354 and each won $3,100.

Next, at 355, and winners of $2,450 each were Bob Goalby and young Chuck Courtney.

Falcon proves it's America's toughest compact in the rugged Monte Carlo Rallye!

Four Falcons started from Oslo, four from Paris, on routes calculated to be equal in difficulty and length. Weather conditions varied from clear, bitter cold through freezing fog to blinding snow—and the time schedules made no provision for delays. Here a Falcon swirls through a sudden snow storm, testing traction in a practice run.

Falcon entered two classes in Europe's 2,700-mile winter ordeal—won them both and finished 2nd overall out of 299 cars. That's durability!

In the Rallye's five special Alpine sections, Falcon was first overall in four, tied for first in one. That's roadability!

In the Rallye's final test around the Monte Carlo racing course, Falcons were first and second. That's maneuverability!

MONTE CARLO — The 33rd Monte Carlo Rallye started with 299 cars. Some 2,700 miles and 3½ days later, only 163 were still in the rally when the field struggled into Monaco—but they included all eight of the specially equipped Falcons that originally started! This eight-out-of-eight record was perhaps more remarkable than the fact that, despite a handicap formula that favored the smallest cars, a Falcon captured second place overall. One car can have luck... but eight have to have total performance. Because the Rallye samples every variety of weather and road conditions the continent can provide, and because it winds up on the most remote byways in the French Maritime Alps, it is a supreme test of all the car's abilities. Falcon steering had to be flawless on glare ice above a 1,000-foot drop. Those fabulous V-8's had to run like dynamos.

The final results in the Monte Carlo Rallye gave Falcon 2nd place overall, 1st in Class 8 of the Touring category, 1st and 2nd in Class 5 of the much tougher Grand Touring category, 1st and 2nd in the final three-lap test on the Monte Carlo circuit. The best finish by a Valiant was 88th overall. Falcon gained invaluable experience in how to build a car better, make it tougher, sharpen up its total performance. That's the real reason Ford is interested in open competition—and why Ford-built cars have got so much more to show drivers. Drive one and see: it won't have six lights, or a horn you can hear for four miles in stormy weather, or the other special rally equipment—but it'll sure surprise you!

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!
